Dear Ms. Lang:

This is a second supplemental response to your February 1, 2018, Freedom of Information Act request seeking access to "all records pertaining to Arthur E. Gary's December 12, 2017 request to the Census Bureau to add a Citizenship question to the 2020 Census Questionnaire."

Please find enclosed 69 pages released in full and in part containing the Civil Rights Division documents responsive to your request. After review, I have determined that certain information within these records is exempt from disclosure pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(5), since the records include intra-agency memoranda containing pre-decisional, deliberative material; and 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6) since disclosure of information contained in these records could reasonably be expected to constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. We have removed several Exemption 5 redactions from the 59 pages previously released and produced a revised set of those records (with one blank page removed) along with 11 additional pages. We are also withholding 42 pages in full pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(5), since the records include intra-agency memoranda containing pre-decisional, deliberative material.

Even though this matter is in litigation, we are required to advise you if you wish to appeal my decision, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

I hope the Civil Rights Division has been of some assistance to you in this matter.

Sincerely,

Tink Cooper
