Re: Additional Facts Relevant to MUR #7497

Dear Ms. Stevenson:

The Campaign Legal Center (“CLC”) and Giffords write to supplement our September 17, 2018 complaint (assigned MUR # 7497) against Matt Rosendale for Montana (ID: C00548289) and the National Rifle Association Institute for Legislative Action (“NRA-ILA”) (ID: C90013301).

In our original complaint, we described two separate reasons to believe that the NRA-ILA made illegal, unreported, and excessive in-kind contributions to Matt Rosendale for Montana in the form of coordinated communications, 11 C.F.R. § 109.21, in violation of FECA’s source prohibitions, reporting requirements, and contribution limits. The first was that Montana U.S. Senate candidate Matt Rosendale stated at a July 2018 fundraising event that the NRA’s Chris Cox had informed him that the NRA would shortly be making expenditures supporting Rosendale. Despite the fact that the communications had not yet aired, Rosendale accurately described both the content of the NRA-ILA’s communications and their timing.¹ The second reason was that the NRA-ILA and Matt Rosendale for Montana were simultaneously paying two apparently distinct but in reality functionally indistinguishable firms for media services, in an apparent deliberate circumvention of the Commission’s common vendor coordination rules.²

We write today to highlight additional facts further supporting the second reason. As described in our original complaint, the NRA-ILA paid the political consulting firm, Starboard Strategic, Inc. (“Starboard”) for independent expenditures supporting Rosendale or attacking his opponent, while at the same time Matt Rosendale for Montana contracted with the consulting firm OnMessage, Inc. (“OnMessage”), which is functionally indistinguishable from Starboard.³ The facts and patterns of activity described in the complaint provide reason to believe that the NRA-ILA made in-kind contributions to Rosendale for Montana in the form of coordinated communications.⁴

Additional facts detailed below show that the NRA-ILA’s pro-Rosendale communications were distributed and placed by employees of the firm National Media Research, Planning and Placement, LLC (“National Media”) under the trade name Red Eagle Media Group (“Red Eagle”), while Matt Rosendale for Montana placed its own communications using National Media or its affiliate American Media & Advocacy Group (“AMAG”). In at least one instance, the same National Media official placed advertisements on behalf of both the NRA-ILA and Matt Rosendale for Montana on the same TV station. Moreover, OnMessage, Starboard, National Media, Red Eagle, and AMAG are all associated with the same Alexandria, Virginia address.

There were therefore two layers to this scheme, which was apparently designed to evade detection of violations of the Commission’s common vendor coordination rules: first, the NRA-ILA and Matt Rosendale for Montana paid the functionally indistinguishable Starboard and OnMessage, respectively, to develop their ads; second, they used another layer of functionally indistinguishable firms, and, in some cases, the same National Media employees, to place those ads.

I. Supplemental Evidence Regarding National Media, AMAG, and Red Eagle

National Media describes itself as “a nationally recognized leader in media research, planning, and placement for issue advocacy, corporate, and political campaigns,” and its website lists examples of its work, the names of and titles of approximately 20 employees, and a contact address of 817 Slaters Lane, Alexandria, VA, 22314.⁵ According to Virginia Corporation Commission filings, National Media uses the address 815 Slaters Lane, Alexandria, VA, 22314, and its registered agent is Joel L. Dahnke.⁶ Dahnke is a Virginia-based lawyer who highlights National Media on his website’s list of “representative clients.”⁷

According to Virginia Corporation Commission records, “Red Eagle Media” is a “fictitious name” or a “trade name” associated with the firm “National Media Research Planning and Placement, LLC,” located at 815 Slaters Lane, Alexandria VA.⁸ According to the Virginia Corporation Commission:

A fictitious name is a name that a person (individual or business entity) uses instead of the person's true name, usually in the course of transacting or offering to transact business. It is sometimes referred to as an “assumed name” or “trade name,” and it is often identified after a person’s true name with the abbreviation “t/a” (“trading as”), “dba” (“doing business as”), or “aka” (“also known as”).⁹

⁸ A business entity search for “Red Eagle Media” on the Virginia Corporation Commission website produces a list of results that includes “Red Eagle Media Group (Alexandria CI),” with an SCC ID number of S2070524, and a status of “fictitious name.” Business Entity Search for “Red Eagle Media,” Commonwealth of Virginia State Corporation Commission, https://sccefile.scc.virginia.gov/Find/Business?SearchTerm=red+eagle+media&SearchPattern=K&as_fid=71a314ab0f8a83563c7a4633b7f34602942d6fb4 (last visited Jan. 25, 2019). According to Virginia Corporation Commission records, American Media & Advocacy Group, LLC (“AMAG”) has a principal office at the same address as National Media and Red Eagle, 815 Slaters Lane, Alexandria, VA, 22314.¹⁰ Its registered agent is Joel L. Dahnke, who is also National Media’s registered agent.¹¹ In a 2016 Daily Beast article, a lawyer for National Media and AMAG “confirmed” that the two entities are “affiliated” but “didn’t detail the nature of their relationship.”¹²

According to Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) records, the NRA-ILA placed independent expenditures supporting Rosendale (or attacking his opponent, Jon Tester) using Red Eagle Media, located at 815 Slaters Avenue, Alexandria, VA, 22314.¹³

FCC records additionally show that Matt Rosendale for Montana’s ads were placed by National Media employees, in many cases under the firm name AMAG, located at 815 Slaters Lane, Alexandria, VA, 22314. For example, on July 20, 2018, Michael Eyerman sent “traffic instructions,” on AMAG letterhead, requesting the airing of a new Rosendale campaign ad titled “Trash.”¹⁴ Eyerman is featured as a “media specialist” on National Media’s website.¹⁵ Also in July 2018, in at least one instance, a document for $31,638 of Matt Rosendale for Montana ads displayed “National Media” in the field for agency name.¹⁶

In some cases, FCC records show that the same National Media employee was placing the NRA-ILA’s ads supporting Rosendale and Matt Rosendale for Montana’s own ads.

For example, an “agreement form” between AMAG and the Montana station KULR-TV for Matt Rosendale for Montana ads was signed by “Jon Ferrell, agent of Matt Rosendale for Montana” on August 31, 2018.¹⁷ According to the National Media website, Ferrell is National Media’s “Director of Accounting,”¹⁸ and Ferrell has been described in news reports as “the National Media chief financial officer.”¹⁹

Four days later, on September 4, 2018, Ferrell signed an agreement form between Red Eagle and the same Montana station for NRA-ILA ads naming Rosendale’s opponent.²⁰

One week after that, on September 11, 2018, on another agreement form between AMAG and that same Montana station for Matt Rosendale for Montana ads, Ferrell again signed the form as “Jon Ferrell, agent of Matt Rosendale for Montana.”²¹

As Mother Jones/The Trace reported on January 11, 2019, “those [Rosendale campaign] ads ran on many of the same shows that the NRA ads did, including airings of The Ellen DeGeneres Show.”²²

Additionally, in October 2018, another arm of the NRA, the NRA Political Victory Fund (“NRA-PVF”) (ID:C00053553),²³ engaged in similar activity: paying Starboard for independent expenditures in the Montana U.S. Senate race, and placing them using National Media/Red Eagle, while at the same time Matt Rosendale for Montana continued to pay OnMessage and place its communications using National Media/AMAG.²⁴ Complainants include this evidence to demonstrate a pattern and practice relevant to our existing complaint against the NRA-ILA and Matt Rosendale for Montana—since it shows respondents engaged in a pattern of activity to evade detection of violations of the Commission’s common vendor coordination rules—rather than to add the NRA-PVF as a respondent.²⁵

II. The NRA-ILA Made Excessive and Unreported In-Kind Contributions to Matt Rosendale for Montana

The evidence described in our complaint and this supplement establishes reason to believe that the NRA-ILA violated FECA by making millions of dollars in excessive,

²⁴ After CLC/Giffords’ September 17, 2018 complaint, Matt Rosendale filed its third quarter, pre-general, and post-general reports with the Commission, where it reported paying OnMessage an additional $2.37 million. See Matt Rosendale for Montana, Disbursements to OnMessage, 7/01/2018-12/31/2018, FEC.GOV, <https://bit.ly/2S4etPc>.

²⁵ For example, on October 17, 2018, the day after Matt Rosendale for Montana made a $202,809 payment to OnMessage for “media,” Matt Rosendale for Montana, 2018 Pre-General Report, FEC Form 3, at 865 (amended Dec. 31, 2018), <http://docquery.fec.gov/pdf/743/201812319143691743/201812319143691743.pdf>, the NRA-PVF paid Starboard Strategic, Inc. $93,746 for an independent expenditure opposing Rosendale’s opponent in the Montana U.S. Senate race, described as “media buy – radio,” National Rifle Association of America Political Victory Fund, 2018 Pre-General Report, FEC Form 3X, at 1160 (filed Oct. 25, 2018) <http://docquery.fec.gov/cgi-bin/fecimg/?201810259131064945>. The NRA-PVF reported that the date of public distribution/dissemination associated with that independent expenditure was October 19, 2018 and reported paying Starboard at the address 705 Melvin Ave., Ste. 105, Annapolis, MD 21401. Id.

Analogous to the facts involving the NRA-ILA, FCC records from that same period show that Matt Rosendale for Montana ads were placed by AMAG while NRA-PVF ads were placed by Red Eagle. These ad placements appear to correspond to the Commission-reported payments to OnMessage and Starboard. For example, an order dated October 16, 2018 shows AMAG placing ads on behalf of the Rosendale campaign for a $14,490 flight of ads slated to run October 23, 2018 through October 29, 2018 on the Montana TV station KULR. Exhibit F at 1. National Media’s Jon Ferrell signed the attached agreement form, again describing himself as an “agent for Matt Rosendale for Montana.” Id. at 13. On October 17, 2018—the same day the NRA-PVF reported to the Commission paying Starboard for “media buy – radio” in the Montana race—Red Eagle signed contracts with two Montana radio stations for ads that ran beginning October 19, 2018. Exhibit G at 1, Exhibit H at 1. (FCC records for these ad buys do not include an agreement form signed by a representative.) The start date for the radio ads matches the public dissemination date on the NRA-PVF’s independent expenditure report for the Starboard payment. Compare Exhibit G at 1, and Exhibit H at 1, with National Rifle Association of America Political Victory Fund, 2018 Pre-General Report, at 1160, supra.

corporate and unreported in-kind contributions to Matt Rosendale for Montana in the form of coordinated communications.

An entity makes a “coordinated communication” when the communication (1) is paid for, in whole or in part, by a person other than the candidate or committee; (2) satisfies at least one of the “content standards” in the regulation, for example by “expressly advocat[ing] . . . the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for Federal office”; and (3) satisfies at least one of the “conduct standards” in the regulation, such as the use of a “common vendor,” 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(a).

The NRA-ILA communications in support of Rosendale, and in opposition to his opponent, satisfy the “payment” prong because they were paid for in whole by the NRA-ILA. Id. § 109.21(a)(1).

The communications satisfy the “content” prong because they were public communications²⁶ that expressly advocated for the election of Rosendale and the defeat of his opponent. Id. § 109.21(c)(2).

As described in our September 17, 2018 complaint, the NRA-ILA’s communications satisfy the “conduct” prong at 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(a)(3) and (d)(4) through the use of common vendors OnMessage/Starboard, which were also providing enumerated services to Matt Rosendale for Montana.²⁷

Additionally, the NRA-ILA further satisfied the conduct prong through the use of National Media (via its “Red Eagle” trade name) to place the communications, while National Media was also placing Matt Rosendale for Montana’s communications (in some cases through its “AMAG” affiliate). National Media, Red Eagle, and AMAG are located at the same “pair of adjacent brick buildings that share a parking lot”²⁸—815 and/or 817 Slaters Lane in Alexandria, Virginia, the same address(es) associated with Starboard/OnMessage—and documents filed with the FCC by Red Eagle and AMAG are signed by National Media employees.

²⁶ A public communication is a “communication by means of any broadcast, cable, or satellite communication, newspaper, magazine, outdoor advertising facility, mass mailing, or telephone bank to the general public, or any other form of general public political advertising.” 11 C.F.R. § 100.26.

²⁸ Mike Spies, Documents Point to Illegal Campaign Coordination Between Trump and the NRA, MOTHER JONES (Dec. 6, 2018), <https://www.motherjones.com/politics/2018/12/nra-trump-2016-campaign-coordination-political-advertising/>.

Taken together, these facts suggest an elaborate scheme designed to evade detection of violations of the Commission's common vendor coordination rules. The NRA-ILA appears to have routed independent expenditures supporting Rosendale through OnMessage's corporate shell of Starboard, while Rosendale's authorized campaign committee directly contracted with OnMessage. Then, the NRA-ILA's pro-Rosendale communications were distributed and placed by National Media employees under the "Red Eagle" trade name, while Matt Rosendale for Montana placed its own communications using National Media or its affiliate AMAG. In some cases, the same National Media official placed advertisements on behalf of both the NRA-ILA and Matt Rosendale for Montana on the same stations, and the communications aired during the same program. The coordinated nature of this scheme is further demonstrated by the fact that all of the relevant companies or shell companies—OnMessage, Starboard, National Media, Red Eagle, and AMAG—are located or have been paid at the same addresses.

Therefore, there is reason to believe that the NRA-ILA made illegal, unreported, and excessive in-kind contributions to Matt Rosendale for Montana in the form of coordinated communications, 11 C.F.R. § 109.21, in violation of FECA's source prohibitions, reporting requirements, and contribution limits.

CLC and Giffords request that the Commission promptly commence an investigation and seek appropriate sanctions for any and all violations.

AGREED UPON SCHEDULE

For All Issue Advertisements That Communicate a Message Relating to Any Political Matter of National Importance

Broadcast Length	Time of Day, Rotation or Package	Days	Class	Times per Week	Number of Weeks

Attach proposed schedule with charges (if available):

AFTER AIRING OF BROADCASTS:

Attach invoices or Schedule Run Summary to this Form showing:

- (1) actual air time and charges for each spot;
- (2) the date(s), exact time(s) and reason(s) for Make-Good(s), if any; and
- (3) the amount of rebates given (identify exact date, time, class of broadcast and dollar amount for each rebate), if any.

Note: Because the FCC requires that the political file contain the actual time the rate for spots "communicating a political matter of national importance" air, that information should be included in the file as soon as possible. If that information is only generated monthly, the file should include the name of a contact person who can provide the times that and rates for specific spots aired. The FCC's online political files include a folder for "Terms and Disclosures." NAB suggests that, for stations subject to the online public file rule, the names of contact person(s) be placed in that folder.

BCRA POLITICAL RECORD

This Political Record is required by the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002 (BCRA) to be completed every time a request is made to purchase broadcast time that (1) is made by or on behalf of a legally qualified candidate for public office, or (2) communicates a message relating to any political matter of national importance, including a legally qualified candidate, any election to federal office, or a national legislative issue of public importance. Once completed, the Political Record must be placed in the station's local public inspection file and must be retained for two years.

This Record is for	<input type="checkbox"/> a candidate request	The request was	<input type="checkbox"/> accepted #
	<input type="checkbox"/> an election message request *		<input type="checkbox"/> rejected
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> an issue request *

* An "election message request" is a request made by anyone to broadcast a message that refers either to a legally qualified candidate or to any election to federal office.

An "issue request" is a message related to a national legislative issue of public importance or a political matter of national importance.

If the request is accepted, attach the sales order showing the rate charged, the date(s) and time(s) the message is aired, and the class of time purchased. For an issue request, also attach the name, address, and phone number of a contact person, and a list of the chief executive officers or members of the executive committee or of the board of directors of the sponsor.
