Dear FOIA Officer:

The Campaign Legal Center (“CLC”) submits this request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., for records pertaining to travel by Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Administrator Scott Pruitt and to a recent EPA contract.

I. Background

On September 27, 2017, the Washington Post reported that at a taxpayer cost of more than $58,000, Administrator Pruitt has traveled via non-commercial aircraft at least four times since assuming his position.¹ CBS News also independently confirmed this information.² These revelations about the Administrator’s travel practices followed a report that the EPA had contracted with Acoustic Solutions for a $24,570 sound-proof “privacy booth.”³

¹ Brady Dennis and Juliet Eilperin, EPA’s Pruitt took charter, military flights that cost taxpayers more than $58,000, WASHINGTON POST (Sept. 27, 2017), https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/energy-environment/wp/2017/09/27/epas-pruitt-took-charter-military-flights-that-cost-taxpayers-more-than-58000/?utm_term=.37eedef1e46d.

² Julianna Goldman and Laura Strickler, EPA’s Scott Pruitt took non-commercial flights totaling more than $58,000, CBS NEWS (Sept. 27, 2017), <https://www.cbsnews.com/news/epas-scott-pruitt-took-non-commercial-flights-totaling-more-than-58000/>.

³ Brady Dennis, EPA spending almost $25,000 to install a secure phone booth for Scott Pruitt, WASHINGTON POST (Sept. 26, 2017), https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/energy-environment/wp/2017/09/26/epa-spending-almost-25000-to-install-a-secure-phone-booth-for-scott-pruitt/?utm_term=.3d56a55304fc.

Both sets of revelations attracted significant attention among the broader press and the public.⁴ Moreover, these revelations about Administrator Pruitt's expenditures came to light in the context of significant public interest in travel practices across multiple other federal agencies.⁵ Records likely to be disclosed in response to this request thus will contribute significantly to the public's understanding of how decisions regarding taxpayer funded-travel are being used at the EPA, among other matters of public interest.

II. Requested Records

This request encompasses:

- Requests for travel approval submitted by Administrator Pruitt or anyone acting on his behalf;
- Responses to said travel requests, including approvals and denials;
- Travel authorizations for Administrator Pruitt, including but not limited to authorizations issued by the EPA's Office of General Counsel or the White House pertaining to the Administrator's use of charter or military aircraft;
- Advice issued by anyone in the EPA or received by anyone in the EPA pertaining to travel by Administrator Pruitt;
- Communications between the EPA and any company used for chartered flights for the Administrator;
- Communications between the EPA and the U.S. Air Force regarding travel on military aircraft;
- Invoices and receipts pertaining to payment to the U.S. Air Force or charter companies for the Administrator's air travel;

- Voucher claims submitted by the Administrator or anyone on behalf of the Administrator after travel undertaken by him;
- Drafts and final versions of any Senior Federal Travel Reports prepared for the General Services Administration;
- Any other documents related to the Administrator's travels that are currently under review by the EPA's Inspector General; and
- Any documents sent by, circulated within, or received by the EPA regarding the decision to contract with Acoustical Solutions for a soundproof "privacy booth,"⁶ including but not limited to all requests, authorizations, and communications pertaining to this decision.

This request encompasses both digital and physical records.

The timeframe for this request is from February 17, 2017 to date.

If some portions of the requested records are exempt from disclosure, please disclose any reasonably segregable non-exempt portions of the requested records. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b). If any portion of the requested records is exempt from disclosure, please provide an index of the withheld materials as required under Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1972).

III. Application for Fee Waiver or Limitation of Fees

A. The request is made for non-commercial purposes and will contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of government.

FOIA provides that the agency shall furnish requested records without or at reduced charge if "disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester." 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).

As described above in Part I, the requested materials involve matters of significant public interest. Records likely to be disclosed in response to this request will contribute significantly to the public's understanding of the agency's use of its resources. These details are not already publicly available and the records would provide a more thorough public understanding of the operations of the agency.

CLC will use records responsive to this request in the creation of widely disseminated materials and analysis that will educate the public about these matters and the operations of the government. CLC anticipates analyzing the materials gathered through this FOIA request to develop reports,⁷ write blogs,⁸ and author op-eds.⁹ CLC's research and reports are widely disseminated on its blog,¹⁰ through its own website,¹¹ through social media platforms like Facebook¹² and Twitter,¹³ and regular emails to its supporters, among other communications outlets.¹⁴

CLC staff have significant knowledge in ethics and government accountability, and news media regularly rely upon CLC's analysis and expertise.¹⁵ In addition to its own blogs and reports, CLC anticipates analyzing the requested records and disseminating the materials among traditional news outlets.

Requester CLC is a non-profit public interest organization organized under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and this request is made for non-commercial purposes.

As such, we request that any applicable fees associated with this request be waived pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). A fee waiver in this instance would fulfill Congress' intent in amending the FOIA. See Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rossotti, 326 F.3d 1309, 1312 (D.C. Cir. 2003) ("Congress amended FOIA to ensure that it be liberally construed in favor of waivers for noncommercial requesters." (quotation marks omitted)).

B. CLC qualifies for a fee waiver as a “representative of the news media.”

CLC additionally requests that it not be charged search or review fees for this request because the organization meets the definition of a “representative of the news media” for purposes of the FOIA, since CLC “gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II)-(III).

As the D.C. Circuit has held, the “representative of the news media” test is focused on the requestor rather than the specific FOIA request. Cause of Action v. F.T.C., 799 F.3d 1108, 1121 (D.C. Cir. 2015). CLC satisfies this test because (as noted in Part III(A)) CLC applies its expertise and editorial skills to turn raw materials into reports, articles, and op-eds that are widely disseminated on its blog,¹⁶ through its own website,¹⁷ through social media platforms and regular emails to its supporters, and through other communications outlets.¹⁸ CLC additionally applies editorial skill to analyze and disseminate materials to other news media outlets, which regularly cite and rely upon CLC's work. The D.C. Circuit has held that an requester may qualify as a news media entity if it “‘distribute[s] [its] work’ by issuing press releases to media outlets in order to reach the public indirectly” 799 F.3d. at 1125-26.

Courts have found that other organizations with functionally similar missions and engaged in similar public education activities qualify as “representatives of the news media,” even if engaged in litigation or other advocacy beyond educating the public about the operations of government. See e.g. Cause of Action v. F.T.C., 799 F.3d 1108, 1121-25 (D.C. Cir. 2015) (finding a public interest advocacy organization that comments to other media outlets about documents it obtains under FOIA a news media requester); Judicial Watch, Inc. v. DOJ, 133 F. Supp. 2d 52, 53-54 (D.D.C. 2000) (finding “public interest law firm” Judicial Watch a news media requester); Elec. Privacy Info. Ctr. V. DOD, 241 F. Supp. 2d 5, 10-15 (D.D.C. 2003) (finding nonprofit public interest group that published a biweekly email newsletter a news media requester).

“It is critical that the phrase ‘representative of the news media’ be interpreted broadly if the act is work as expected, . . . In fact, any person or organization which regularly publishes or disseminates information to the public . . . should qualify for waivers as a 'representative of the news media.'" 132 Cong. Rec. S14298 (daily ed. Sept. 30, 1986), cited in Nat'l Sec. Archive v. U.S. Dep't of Def., 880 F.2d 1381, 1386 (D.C. Cir. 1989).

In the event the fee waiver is not granted, I may not be charged for the first two hours of search time, or for the first hundred pages of duplication. Please contact me and advise me of the cost of this request if processing costs exceed $100.

IV. Application for Expedited Processing

I request that the processing of this request be expedited pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(iv).

As described in Part I, the subject of the request involves a matter of exceptional media interest, and the initial revelations about Administrator Pruitt's expenditure practices raise questions about the government's integrity that can affect public confidence.¹⁹

I certify that my statements concerning the need for expedited processing are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
